Premium economy is allowed for flights between 6 and 9 hours. Business class is only allowed for flights longer than 9 hours and requires written approval from a Vice President.

3. Hotels

The nightly hotel limit is 245 Canadian dollars in Calgary, Toronto and Vancouver, and 190 Canadian dollars in all other Canadian cities. For travel to the United States the limit is 275 US dollars per night. Employees may not book short-term rentals such as Airbnb without approval from their manager.

The daily meal allowance (per diem) is 82 Canadian dollars. Alcohol is never reimbursed, except at client dinners approved in advance by a director, where it is capped at 40 Canadian dollars per person.

5. Ground transport and mileage

Use of a personal vehicle is reimbursed at 0.71 Canadian dollars per kilometre. Rental cars must be compact or mid-size and booked through TripDesk. Taxis and ride-share are allowed when public transit would take more than 45 minutes longer.

Expense claims must be submitted in the Ledgerly app within 30 days of returning from a trip. Receipts are required for every expense over 25 Canadian dollars. Claims submitted after 60 days are rejected unless the Chief Financial Officer grants an exception.

7. Lost receipts

If a receipt is lost, the employee must complete the Missing Receipt Declaration form. This option can be used at most three times per calendar year.
